WHO AM I

Throughout his career, Sebastian has remained dedicated to mentoring, coaching, and creating opportunity for those around him. As he expands Fenix's nationwide reach, his focus is to continually improve the company's business model with an ever-increasing emphasis on the education and development of his 300+ teammates. At the end of the day, his coaching mantra is that: "If we can help people to think right, they will do right."

*"Happy People are growing people;
growing people tend to be loyal people."*

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

WHAT HAVE BEEN SOME OF YOUR BIGGEST CHALLENGES? HOW HAVE YOU OVERCOME THEM?

To conquer the world is to conquer oneself. I have always believed any challenge I am faced with is a reflection of an inner battle and an opportunity to grow. As a result, my biggest challenges have all been around letting go of stories, beliefs, and values that don't serve me and having the courage and discipline to acknowledge and change them.

HOW DID YOUR CHILDHOOD INFLUENCE WHO YOU ARE TODAY?

Growing up as the oldest child in a small town in the country, I had a lot of responsibility at a very young age. I grew up fast and quickly discovered that the entrepreneurial lifestyle suited me after starting my first business selling blackberries to local restaurants. If I wasn't working, I was reading or outdoors appreciating the purity and wildness of the natural world and it's the best feeling in the world.

HOW WOULD YOU CHARACTERIZE YOUR PATH TO ENTREPRENEURSHIP?

Deliberate, intentional, and calculated.
